The principal witnesses of the day were Lieutenant John Hood, who commanded the dispatch boat the Hawk during the Spanish war and Captain Bowman H. McCalla, who was in command of the Marblehead. The testi mony of both these officers dealt with the delivery of dispatches from Admiral Sampson to Commodore Schley and both related conversations with the other. Captain McCalla gave in detail his part in arranging a code of ignals with the Cuban insurgents and als communications with them near Cienfuegoes on May 24, 1898 when it was learned definitely that Cervera's fleet was not in the harbor there. He said that Captain Chadwick who was Admiral Sampson's chief of staff was the only person at Key West to whom he had communicated the signal code.
